

HONORS PROGRAM (CHON)

---

CHON 100 Freshman Honors Seminar 1 Credit

Exploration of topics regarding adjustment to the demands of University life. Special attention is devoted to problems peculiar to Honors Program students. Satisfies requirement for First-Year Student Seminar.

CHON 101 Honors Seminar 1 Credit

Exploration of topics regarding adjustment to the demands of University life. Special attention is devoted to problems peculiar to Honors Program students. Satisfies requirement for First-Year Student Seminar.

CHON 102 Honors Seminar 1 Credit

Exploration of topics regarding adjustment to the demands of University life. Special attention is devoted to problems peculiar to Honors Program students. Satisfies requirement for First-Year Student Seminar.

CHON 399 Independent Study 1-6 Credits

Students identify a problem, issue or topic, outside the major, to be explored in depth under the supervision of a teacher with expertise in the selected area. Credit hours may not exceed three (3) hours per semester, and cannot exceed six (6) hours during undergraduate tenure.

CHON 499 Senior Thesis 1-2 Credits

Application of research methods to students' major area of concentration. They identify a research topic from their major courses, develop a research design, and complete the senior thesis under the guidance of an instructor.