Practicum

Students who elect to do the practicum must first complete at least twenty-eight (28) credits of coursework before beginning this field experience. The practicum provides opportunities for students to gain practical experience in the criminal justice system thereby bridging classroom learning with the actual field setting. The department strives to meet the needs of students by placing them in their choice positions at the federal, state, and county levels as well as with some private agencies.

Graduate Assistantships

A limited number of graduate assistantships through the department are available on a competitive basis for students in Academic Good Standing and provide opportunities in research and professional assignments. Individual faculty members may also have graduate assistantships through funded research grants. For details please contact the graduate program coordinator.
