The School of Arts and Sciences is committed to creating and maintaining a thriving cultural and academic milieu in which students and faculty may fully develop their individual potential as human beings, leaders, scholars, teachers, and productive members of society.

The mission of the School of Arts and Sciences is to prepare broad-based scholars, researchers and practitioners who are leaders, lifelong learners, and productive global citizens, to provide the core curricular foundation for the University, and to enrich the University's artistic and cultural environment. The vision of the School of Arts and Sciences is to lead in the preparation and education of students, and attain greater prominence in the global environment through research and creative expression, and its interdisciplinary programs that are recognized for academic excellence, and intellectual breadth and depth.

The School's faculty accomplishes this mission through the four divisions, composed of Communication Arts, Humanities, Natural and Mathematical Sciences, and Social Sciences, by providing a variety of uniquely designed high quality instructional programs and academic activities from cutting-edge research to preparing students to meet the demands of a career in various industries from technology to the cultivation of the next stars of stage, television, and film.
