

PROFESSIONAL APPAREL DESIGN, MINOR

The minor in Professional Fashion Apparel Design was developed for merchandising concentration students. Merchandising concentration students with a minor in Professional Fashion Apparel Design are able to explore more advanced apparel construction techniques. The understanding of how garments are made gives these students an edge in being able to determine the quality of garment manufacturing, a critical skill in being an effective fashion buyer.

Code	Title	Hours
Required Courses
CART 201	Drawing I	3
CFAS 237	Fashion Illustration	3
CFAS 240	Apparel Construction I	3
CFAS 241	Apparel Construction II	3
CFAS 310	Flat Pattern	3
CFAS 320	Draping	3
Total Hours		18