Study Abroad Program

There are numerous study abroad opportunities available to Clark Atlanta University students since the University is a member of CIEE, CISS and the University Center of Georgia consortia. The Department encourages all its majors to study abroad, preferably during the junior year. The department recommends students to have completed the advanced grammar course(s) in his/her major prior to departure for study abroad. A student may participate in a study abroad program for a semester, a year or during the summer.

All students interested in undertaking studies in a foreign country must obtain approval from the department chair. Specific inquiry relating to country information and University guidelines should be directed to Director of Multicultural Affairs in the Student Center.
